To:

We are writing to inform you that DoD phased out DoD Civilian Retiree ID cards on February 17, 2023, and all previously issued cards will be terminated effective August 31, 2023. This does not change any benefits extended to you as a DoD Civilian Retiree.

DoD Civilian Retiree installation access, including the limited use of Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) activities, is at the discretion of the installation commander. If you use your DoD Civilian Retiree ID card for installation access, you must make alternative arrangements by August 31, 2023. The DoD's approved alternative is a REAL ID Act-compliant ID and a retirement document (i.e. Standard Form-50, Notification of Personnel Action, or other official DoD agency civilian employee retirement document). Please consult your local installation for installation-specific access procedures and policies. You should expect to forfeit your DoD Civilian Retiree ID card if it is presented for access after August 31, 2023.

ACTION REQUIRED: Your DoD ID card is the property of the U.S. Government and must be returned to the DoD. You may return the card to the nearest Real-Time Automated Personnel Identification System (RAPIDS) site, which can be found using the ID Card Office Locator
